Inclusive Education SD57 Mental Health Behaviour Symposium 2022/2023

February 1st Pro-D Day

Registration for the following sessions will close on January 26th at noon.

Please register on PD Reg: <https://schdist57.sharepoint.com/sites/pdhub>

- 9:00am to 12:00pm: Everyday Anxiety Strategies for Educators (EASE) (In-Person at District Learning Commons, at John McInnis Centre)
Facilitator: Michele David.
This will be an interactive process with online components. You will complete the full EASE curriculum through group participation and individual computer work. You will be working in your account on <https://healthymindsbc.gov.bc.ca/> website (please create an account by January 30th).
- 10:00am to 12:00pm: Art for the Health of It! Come and Make a Sun-Catcher for You to Keep! (In-Person at College Heights Secondary)
Presenter: Wendy Young.
This ½ day session will focus on participants making a Sun-catcher from glass, glass bubble enamel paint and glass enamel paint. We will review the steps to make a Sun-catcher. The artist will have examples on hand and use a presentation to step you through the making of your Sun-catcher. The artist will take them home with her and fuse them for you. You will then be able to pick them up a week later for you to take and hang somewhere to help you smile! Discussion and reflection opportunity around the importance of taking care of yourself, your mental/physical well-being and the impact it has on your brain. The connection of your overall health and influence this has to our student well-being and their developing brains. The materials are non-toxic and non-staining. Materials to be used are: clear glass, glass bubble enamel paint, glass enamel paint, toothpicks, Q-tips and paper towels. Wendy has been working with glass in its various forms for over 22 years.
- 1:00pm to 2:30pm: Understanding Equine Therapy for Health (In-Person at John McInnis Centre, ACP)
Presenter: Connie Taylor, C-Kat Equine Therapy

Understanding the physical health and mental health benefits of therapeutic riding. The presenter will be giving examples of the benefits from riders that she currently works with or has worked with in the past, along with some info on the research behind it. NB: From the Presenter, Connie to the Participants: please note that there may be pictures of a student who passed away in the spring of 2022 in the presentation.

- 2:00pm to 3:00pm: Let's Talk About Stress (In-Person at John McInnis Centre)
Presenter: Brittany Lank (she/her), Concurrent Disorders Clinician with Foundry Prince George.

Stress plays a role in the lives of everybody, from students and caregivers to teachers, administrators and support workers. This presentation focuses on stress management, exploring the following questions:

- What is Foundry and how can young people access it?
- What is stress, why do we have it, and how do we know when we experience stress?
- What do different types of stress look like, and how do they affect us?
- What is the difference between stress and anxiety?
- What are different ways to manage stress – both for ourselves and in supporting others?

Ideally, you will leave this presentation with a deeper understanding of the role and experience of stress in our lives, and some ideas and inspiration about how to support yourself and others in managing it.

Becoming a Behavioural Detective Workshop with Kim Barthel

January 28th, 9:00am to 4:30pm – UNBC 7-170/172 Bentley Centre

Cost: $50.00, lunch provided

Hosted by YMCA of Northern BC, Child Care Resource & Referral

There is always a reason for the behaviour! This workshop with Kim Barthel, OTR will assist Early Childhood Professionals as well as parents, in supporting children with issues that can result in “challenging behaviours.” Participants will be invited to become “Behavioural Detectives,” using clinical reasoning to look deeper than the surface actions we observe in our kids, aiming to shift our focus from “managing behaviour” to understanding behaviour. Topics such as developmental disabilities, attachment strategies, trauma, and sensory processing will be covered.
