Registration for the 2022 Virtual Math Summit is open!

The 2022 Virtual Math Summit is actually right around the corner. For the past 5 years I've always done the Virtual Math Summit during summer break in August. But this year, I decided to switch things up and do the summit in February. The reason for that is I want you to be able to take what you learn in the summit and implement it in class on Monday instead of having to wait until school started back up in the Fall.

Over on TheRecoveringTraditionalist.com I'm sharing the 'trailer' video for the summit to show you our lineup of speakers.

If you don't need to see the trailer video and you are ready to register (at no cost) for the 2022 Virtual Math Summit go here now: VirtualMathSummit.com
