ShareEdBC

For any teachers who missed connecting to ShareEdBC in December and would like to have access, you can email them directly: ShareEdBC@gov.bc.ca. You will need to supply them with your first and last name and school district email address. This organization provides a website to share ideas and make connections with other educators and educational organizations throughout BC.

With over 2700 curated resources, we invite you to explore what ShareEdBC can be for you and your classroom. This month, the What's New section has an inquiry and online learning foci. Check it out!

Email notification preferences can be updated in ShareEdBC, using Preferences under Profile menu.

Take Action for Reconciliation - January 20th Learning Opportunity for Teachers

Check out the following event on PD Reg:

Title: E-Resource: Take Action for Reconciliation

Time: 1/20/2022 3:00 PM-4:00PM

Location: Teams Meeting

Description:

Take Action for Reconciliation is a brand new E-Resource for elementary students available in English and in French.

Explore how students can be a part of reconciliation with concrete action through inquiry. This resource includes a complete teacher's guide to help you plan and use this, plus physical versions of these kits are also available at the DLC.

Teaching Dakelh with the Lheidli T'enneh Hubughunek – January 31st Pro-D

Check out the following event for PGDTA on PD Reg:

Time: 1/31/2022 1:00 PM-2:30PM

Location: Zoom

Description: Join Jennifer Pighin to learn how to use the Lheidli T'enneh Dakelh Language Resource.

Please Register and pick up your resources from the Indigenous Education Office before the workshop. *** NOTE: if you already have the pocket dictionary and grammar book, please pick up a package that doesn't have one in it.

- Teachers Manual (on Teams)
- Workbook 1 & 2
- Reader 1 & 2
- Pocket Dictionary
- Grammar Booklet

The hard copies are for teachers only. Digital copies are on Teams for printing and/or displaying digitally. Class sets can be ordered from Papyrus on school resource budgets. Feel free to join at the link above without registering for the printed packages (only 30 packages available).

Please note that the beading activity initially offered by Laurie Todd on Jan. 31 has been cancelled.
